

Bling it On

Tips from Beverly Hills Mutt Club

Diamond-loving doggy diva Chloe is a bootie-clad Beverly Hills Chihuahua in this smash-hit Disney comedy. But what exactly is hot in the posh pooch boutiques of chic Beverly Hills? We chat to Sandy Siegler and Celina Bojorquez – owners of the posh dog store, Beverly Hills Mutt Club – to find out the ultimate in haute-dog couture and accessories...

DIAMOND DOGGY JEWELRY

Sandy: "Beverly Hills is all about the bling! A diamond doggy necklace is the ultimate accessory for your pooch. They sparkle and shine and dogs love to wear them!"

CUSTOMIZED DOG COLLARS

Celina: "Diamond-encrusted necklaces aren't practical for everyday use, however, a customized dog collar can make an equally strong fashion statement."

STERLING SILVER DOG TAGS

Sandy: "Sterling silver dog tags are a must for every Beverly Hills pooch! Have your puppy's name engraved on the front and personalize your design by adding crystals or glitzy diamonds."

BEJEWELED LEASHES

Celina: "When you're taking your dog for a walk, a retractable, bejeweled leash never fails to turn a head or two! They are intricately hand-embellished to perfection using the finest crystals."

CRYSTAL-ENCRUSTED HAIRBRUSHES

Sandy: "We have a range of crystal hairbrushes to match the bejeweled leashes. These exquisite brushes are made in Italy and are also available with diamonds."

COUTURE DRESSES AND TUXEDOS

Celina: "If you're attending a red carpet event why not splash out on an evening couture dress for your furry friend? There's also a range of doggy tuxedos for the boys to dress up in style!"

LUXURY DOG BEDS

Sandy: "It doesn't get more lavish than our faux fur-covered cushions. Remember: Beverly Hills pooches are very politically correct, so they will always go with faux fur."

CANINE SUNNIES

Celina: "Designer doggy sunglasses are both practical and cool. What Hollywood outfit is complete without designer sunnies? You've got to have your shades!"

DESIGNER DOGGY DAYWEAR

Sandy: "Crystal-embroidered velour tracksuits, cashmere doggy sweaters, polka-dot dog bikinis, Chanel-inspired faux fur-trimmed coats, snuggly doggy jackets and even pooch boots are all the rage in Beverly Hills."

DELUXE DINNER BOWLS

Celina: "Dinner time is extra special when it's eaten from exclusive, hand-blown glass dog bowls. However, if you really want to splash the cash, invest in a hand-made crystal feeder complete with two bowls: one for doggy treats and the other for mineral water."

POSH POOCH NAIL POLISH

Sandy: "Non-toxic pooch nail polish comes in a whole variety of colors for dogs. If you've got a fabulous outfit, you might as well have matching nails!"

PAW-FUME!

Celina: "You can also buy doggy cologne, which is available in a variety of fragrances. They're made from all-natural ingredients and they're also a UV protector."

HANDY HINTS FOR YOUR BEVERLY HILLS CHIHUAHUA!

Three top tips for a fabulous fashionista pooch...

1. If your pooch doesn't feel comfortable wearing an outfit or a doggy accessory, never force them to put it on.
2. If you're buying a necklace for your canine companion, make sure it hangs a little loose around their neck – especially if they're a long-haired pooch.
3. Dogs shouldn't sleep or bathe in jewelry. A human wouldn't wash or sleep wearing a diamond-encrusted necklace, so neither should pooches.
