If you answered...

Mostly A's – Your dog is a digger!

Your dog is a dog's dog. She likes to run, jump, play in the dirt and do all the things that dogs love most. Whatever the situation your dog will make the most of it, but the Beverly Hills lifestyle is not for her.

Mostly B's – Your dog is a diva!

From her Egyptian cotton-filled doggy bed to her diamond-covered collar, your dog is all about luxury and class. She won't drink tap water or touch the pavement without wearing her booties. In fact, she owns more shoes than you do (but then again she does have twice as many legs). She and Chloe would be BFFs.

Mostly C's – Your dog is a dreamer.

Every dog is special, but yours takes the cake. Whether it is laziness or fear, there's not much your pooch likes doing besides sleeping and eating, which would be fine if he were a cat.
